They insist that the fact that there is no dispute regarding Garfield's election does not lessen the responsibility of congress in preserving its just rights in the matter in accordance with the doctrines so earnestly advocated four years ago by Messrs. Bruce has no special qualification for the place except that he is a colored man—that is, those who are 'booming' nim are doing it upon the ground that he is a colored man, needs recognition, and all that sort of thing. From some things Garfield said I don't believe he likes the idea of singling onts san for honors simply because he is black any flare than because he is white."

cabinet would give us a backset. It is not right that this should be so, but the race feeling is something that must be considered. If Garfield manages things right he can have Tennessee and Virginia in the party before the end of his administration. We have a republican governor in Tennessee now, and lack but three votes of controlling the legislature. If Garfield manages matters with judgment he can have Virginia, West. Virginia, Tennessee and North Carolina come to his support for a second term on a sound republican platform. Things are now rile for a break down south."

"Do you think Garfield is ambitious to serve a second term?"

"I do. The fact is, I never knew a president who was not, except Hayes. Hayes cut himself off from a second term by a positive declaration, that he didn't beli eve in two consecutive terms. Garfield has made no declaration of that kind, and will not. He is young and ambitious. Unless his administration is a failure he will be a formidable candidate for a second term. His chief anxiety now is that the administration is a failure beysues a failure. Hence the great care and reflection he is giving the cabinet problem, and the extreme caution with which he makes a move."

"He has a big job in that. I doubt his success. As they say down in our country, I fear he has bitten off more than he can chew. But we all wish him success. If he gets Grant, Blaine, Logan, Conkling, Sherman, Cameron, Hayes and others, all to pulling together, he will do more than has ever yet been done in the war of conciliation."

"What are his feelings toward Senator Conkling?"
"Very friendly, indeed, and he declares to so continue. The Hayes administration made nothing by breaking with Senator Conkling, but, on the contrary, lost much. I don't believe General Garfield wants to repeat the experiment. The fact is, the relations of Garfield and Conkling have always been friendly, but not conspicuously so: It is no secret that Garfield was not Conkling's first choice for president, or second choice, either. But that is no reason why the relations between the New York senator and the new administration should not be friendly. In fact, Garfield will attempt to cultivate harmonious relations all around the board, and I don't think he will willingly break with anybody."

New York correspondent says: "The great East river bridge, and possibly the Hudson river tunnel, will be completed by the time the world's fair is under way. Of themselves these will be attractions of no small moment, and if the idea of a grand dis-play in North river of the latest improveplay in North river of the latest improvements in the maritime architecture of all nations can be carried out, the apprehension sometimes expressed that we shall have nothing to show, and nothing worth the while of anybody coming to see, will be in a fair way to be disputed. Very little has been said lately about the tunnel, but, notwithstanding the set-back of the terrible accident in the main shaft last year, work is begun again, is prosecuted with vigor, and as there is no lack of capital back of it, and no lack of confidence on the part of the engineers that it can be made a success, its completion is only a matter of time. The Thames tunnel will be a bagatelle compared with it in length or with the facilities it will, afford for traffic and travel. As to the naval display, it is already quite popular with shipping people here, and speen al efforts will be made by the Maritime exchange, as well as by the Ship owners' as sociation, to make it a signal success, as well as a financial one. The committee h avereached a point to warrant the active cooperation of all such organizations.

The trial came on at an adjourned

The trial came on at an adjourned term of the superior court in December, Judge Sneed presiding. The state was represented by Colonel S Dutcher, of Augusta, and Colonel J. J. Jones, of Waynesboro, and Colonel J. J. Askion and P. P. Johnson, of Waynesboro, and M. P. Carroll, of Augusta. There was much interest exhibited in the trial. There had been at first talk of mobbing the accused, and the sheriff had removed the prisoners to the country every night fer safe keeping. Emanuel Carr's testimony not being considered sufficient, it was generally feared that the negroes might be cleared. Great satisfaction was therefore expressed when it was learned that Abe was going to testify.

When brought on the stand he said that on the night before the murder Mose came to him after he got home from work, and told him that Mr. Driscoll had had warrants issued for him and Frank, and that they wanted to go to the house that high to settle the matter, and said that he was not going to be arrested. This was early in the night. They came to his house after milanight and told him to come and go with them. He went with them, thinking that they wanted to go to the bouse that night to withdraw the warrants. His testimony in reference to what happened at the house corroborated Emanuel's. In cross examination he was asked. Were you the 'hird party present at the killing?" He replied, 'I was.' Strange to relate, old Emanuel Carr, who was at the back of the room, cried out. "You were not." The fate of the accused was sealed.

ATLANTA, GA., JANUARY 29, 1881. THE Macon Telegraph has information from a wholesale merchant who has just been through most of the counties in southwest Georgia, that there is plenty of cotton to come in from the gin-houses. He visited every gin-house in his route, and in no case did he find them cottonless. The bad weather is, however, operating to hinder preparations for another crop. Owing to an epidemic of measles in Bainbridge, President Hardeman, of the State agricultural society, has indefinite-adopt such legislation as may be deemed necessary to forward a project in which every part of our common country is the amount of crime in their respective counties. The question is not whether there is more crime in Laurens county than in Pulaski, or the contrary, but whether crime in either county is promptly punished. Do the grand juries do their duty? It is not for usto answer. With respect to the recent cold-blooded and willful murder of two defenseless negroes in Pulaski county, the grand jury seems to have done its duty. It has investigated the matter asthoroughly as possible, and as a result of that investigation, a true bill for murder has been found against a white main named Joab Horne. The grand jury can go no further, but are the other officers of the law doing their duty in this matter? Has there been any attempt to bring Joab Horne to answer the indictment? If he is out of reach of the sheriff, has the matter been brought to the attention of the governor, so that a reward might be offered for his apprehension? It will we allude to these things, not for the officers for his apprehension? It will we allude to these things, not for the officer of the law officered for his apprehension? Race troubles are nearly extinct with us. The better elements of the negro people rising; the worse elements sinking—through vice, crime; whisky and want. Many of the viler sort have exodusted north and west. Already there is a pronounced artisotracy among the negroes. At their fashionable weddings the array of silks, white kids and jewelry is gorecous. There are blacks in Raileigh worth from $5,0.0 to $10,000 in good city property. There are negroes in this country who own 200 acre farms, with all necessary improvements. One recently built a school-house for his neighbors and got a country road changed to pas his house. More than $10,000 worth of property is owned by negroes in haifax, Warren and other counties. Odds and ends of lands are picked up for almost nothing, sometimes as a gift, and are soon made to thrive. Perhaps 10,000 negroes in the state to-day own from ten to 300 acres.

The following, from a letter written by General Longstreet, puts a large truth in small eral Longstreet, puts a large truth in small compass:

"The only reason why the republican party at the south has been put down and kept down is that no effort has been made to build it up except on the colored man as a corner stone, and he in the hands of strangers who have not understood him or his characteristics."

No party, in the south or anywhere else, of which an inferior race is the corner stone, can ever obtain, or ought ever to obtain, permanent success. The superior race always has been and always will be dominant in politics.

Convers, January 27.—The citizens of Newton county in the vicinity of Oak Hill are making an effort to have a post-office established at that place, to be supplied from this place. If it is established, that will be four post-offices supplied from this point. They need a post-office, and I hope the department will give them one.

On the Cherokee Railboad Train, January 27.—An old feud between A. G. Bullock, town marshal, and L. B. York and his sons, culmifiated to-day at Bockmart. The Yorks resisted arrest. The marshal armed himself with a shot-gun and demanded the surrender of the Yorks. They began firing with revolvers. Bullock shot them both, wounding the senior York in the face and hand, and the younger York badly in the face. Bullock was arrested.

Newsan, January 28.—Night before last the kitchen of Mrs. Howeil was broken open by some parties in search of provisions, etc. She heard the noise and started out to ascertain what was going on, but to rooner had she made her appearance than the burglars began throwing rocks at her which forced her to retreat, Some of the neighbors were called for, but the thieves made good their escape before anyone could be aroused.—-The pretty weather has brought more farmers than usual to town and the grocery merchants seem to be doing a big business furnishing farm supplies.

GRENVILLE, S. C., January 27.—The arson case, i. e. the burning of the Academy of Music in December 1879, came up, and was argued before the supreme court on Monday last, also the case of Stokes vs the City of Greenville, where the damages for false imprisonment are laid at $100.000.

—It began to snow in Columbia on Monday morning at 7½ o'clock and continued until 4½ in the afternoon. A very little fell here; not enough to show on the ground. The weather for the positive days has been pleasant, and trade is beginning to revive again.

DECATUR, January 28—A pleasant company of young folks gathered at the elegant residence of Mr. G. A. Ramspeck, on Broad street, yesterday evening. The occasion was a parly given by Mrs. G. A. Ramspeck in honor of her cousin, Miss Nannie Kirk patrick, of Marietta, a very lovely and fascinating brunette, who has been spending several weeks in our town, and is quite popular with our young people. The affair was one of extreme enjoyment, and the merry guests indulged in trypichorean pleasure and other innocent anusements until a late hour, when all went home delighted with the kind treatment accorded them by the charming hostess and genial host.—Major Henry West has sold his handsome residence on Webster street to Mr. Paul Becker, of Chicago.—Mrs. Hanson has sold her cottage, near the depot, to Mr R. M. Walker, of South Carolina.

The music will be furnished by a splendid band of Italian Bohemians—Colonel Grasty is in the city to-day. Hon. Seaton Grantland and lady are at present sojourning in Paris, France. The former has written some very interesting letters to the Daily News. Mrs Clay Roberts, of Nashwille Tean, is visiting relations here. She without a word of warning, began to stab Wheeler in a very savage way, taking it upon himself to do Freeman's fighting. Wheeler is severely cut in the head, back, face, side and arm, though his physicians say the wounds are not necessarily fatal. Bynes and Freeman escaped, whether hurt or not no one knows. A negro, Bill Jones, standing by, who caught a man around the waist to keep him out of the row was severely stabbed several times by the man (Wheeler's friend) who he was holding fores's wounds are all in the legs and arms Mr. John Johns, superintendent of the iron works, seeing his foreman being butchered by the savige negroes, interfered to rescue Wheeler, when Bynes made a lunge at him with his knife, cutting a long and ugly gash on his head, just above and behind the left ear. Mr. Johns at this juncare gave the negro a terrific blow across the face with a heavy stick, which caused im to loose his hold of his victim, Wheele nd run. There is a reward of $50 offere

Yesterday afternoon, between four an of a runaway, occurred on Bay street, near Houston, and was attended with serious consequences. A colored man was riding the well known trotter of Mr. W. H. Ray bareback down Bay street, when from some cause the animal took fright and becoming gallop. Near the corner of Houston street a truck happened to be in the way, and the rider being unable to control his horse, the frightened animal ran directly under the truck between the span of wheels, knocking his rider off, breaking his thigh none, smashing out his front teth and otherwise seriously injuring him. The horse was also badly hurt, the hair on his back being completely scraped off and the desh lacerated. It is supposed that, unable to avoid a collision, the horse slipped, and na crouching position, as it were, slid directly under the truck. The colored man was picked up and placed in a wagon and sent to the Georgia infirmary, where he received prompt attention. His condition is considered rather serious.

Savannah News.

The rumor yesterday that the Ocean steamship company of Savannah had perfected arrangements for covering the line between Savannah and Philadelphia, created quite a flutter in the stock market, and sent up Central about two points, giving it a sort of boom, as it were. There were several statements in reference to the matter, but the following are the fects learned after investigation: The company controlling the Savannah and Philadelphia line have also been runningships from Philadelphia to New Orleans, Wilmington and Norfolk. The Savannah line has paid well, but the lesses on the other routes, especially the New Orleans line, were very heavy, and though the Savannah bine has paid well, but the lesses on the other routes, especially the New Orleans line, were very heavy, and though the Savannah line, others being discontinued, and winding up the affairs of the concern. Accordingly, at a recent meeting of the directors in Philadelphia, a resolution was passed briefly setting forth these facts, and making a proposition to the Ocean steamship company of Savannah in cover the route, as the business, which was increasing, would be lost or diverted if the line should be suddenly discontinued. The matter was considered by the management of the Ocean steamship company, and the result was acquiescence in the proposition of the Philadelphia company, and the result was acquiescence in the proposition of the Philadelphia company will withdraw their steamship from the New York route, will be placed on the route between this city and Philadelphia, and a weekly line will be continued. Under the arrangement the Philadelphia company will withdraw their steamships from the line on the 19th of February, and The Philadelphia to this city about the 24th of February, followed by the Livingston, Messrs. THE GREAT

APPETIZER---SURE CURE For COUGHS, COLDS, BRONCHITIS, ASTHMA, CONSUMPTION, and all Dist
eases of the THROAT and LUNGS.
The most acceptable preparation in the known world. By adding to Tolu ROCK and RYK a little Lemen Juice, you have an excellent Appetizer and Tonic, for general family use. The immense and increasing sales and the numerous testimonials received daily are the best evidence of its virtues and popularity.
Put up in QUART size Bottle, giving MORE for the money than any article in the market.

CAUTION. --- DON'T BE DECEIVED by unprincipled dealers who try to palm Rock and RYE, which is the only MEDICATED article made, the Gennine having a Government Stamp on each bottle. Extract from Report of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue;

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, OFFICE OF INTERNAL REVENUE;

WASHINGTON, D. C., January 26th, 1880.

Mesers, LAWRENCE & MARTIN, 111 Madison Street Chicago, Ill.;

GENTLEMEN: This compound, in the opinion of this office, would have a sufficient quantity of the BALSAM OF TOLU to give it all the advantages ascribed in this article unantity of complaints, while the whisky and syrup constitute an enulsion rendering it an agreeable remedy to the patient. Compounded according to the formula, it may properly be classed as a medicinal preparation under the provisions of U.S. Revised Statutes, and when so stamped, may be sold by Druggless, Apothecaries and Other Persons without rendering them liable to pay special tax as liquor dealers.

THREE-CORNERED FIGHT AT THE P. O A Man Insults a Lady Who is Trying to Make an Honest Livelibood - An Atlanta Gentlam Punished for the Offense, but He Claims to be Innocent of It.

Several days ago an elderly-looking person entered the post office building, and going us to the stamp window asked for thirty cents, worth of postage stamps, at the same time handing Miss Tulier, the stamp clerk, a five dollar bill from which the amount was to be taken. At the time the transaction occurred the stamp window was closed-on account of an excessive draught of air which was pass-ing through the building—and the stamps and change were passed through an opening under the window. The person making the purchase did not like this method-which has been the custom since the new building has been occupied, and demanded that Miss
